Prayers of God Robert Mottley

Would empathy for humans ever compel a deity to pray? If so, to whom and for what? "Terrific, superbly paced, pitch-perfect, wonderful in so many ways." - William John Kennedy, professor of comparative literature, Cornell. About the Author: Robert Mottley worked for trade publications in New York City for many years. He compiled and edited The Best of Marya Mannes, an anthology of essays by a pioneering media commentator. Information about Omniscient Neutral Intelligence, publisher of this precursory edition, can be found in Insert 12, "Sky and Sea."
