Voices From the Passion Wayne Bartelt

Imagine how each participant in the Passion Story might speak to us from the grave. Some describe what they wanted to see; others what they were conditioned to see, still others tell us how they experienced the miracle of God's love. For many of them Jesus was an intrusion in their lives. Yet those who knew him longest counted him teacher, friend and Savior. Whether they knew him for a long period of time, or only as a passing shadow, he left an indelible mark on each of them and changed their lives - every one of them - for all eternity
