The Milkman Story: What Happens When a Jewish Carpenter Meets a Gentile Milkman Paul Robbins
"I have always been challenged by Paul Robbins' teaching. He speaks with a soft voice but with rich wisdom born of his heritage. In this book, he brings a fresh perspective to the age-old existential questions we all ask and arrives at undeniable, practical truth." Ruth Graham, Author of best-selling In Every Pew Sits a Broken Heart
"The Milkman Story is a trove of treasures. Through Paul's amazing life-story and the impact of one authentic Shepherd, it offers simple, ordinary life moments in which we can reflect and discover the profound Kingdom of God transforming the ordinary-not through man's wisdom or skills or strength, but through God's love. This is a riveting journey for the heart, mind, and soul." Weyman Howard, Author, international speaker & founder of LoveWorks
Paul was born in Brooklyn, New York to Jewish parents, each of whose family migrated from Eastern Europe. As a child of the turbulent 60's, he set out on an adventure in search of significance and authenticity. He is now the Associate Director of Construction Teams Ministry for ANM, as well as the Director of "Comfort My People," an ANM ministry to the Jewish people in Israel and beyond. He is married to Marla. They have four children and seven grandchildren. They reside in Virginia. See more about Paul's story at TheMilkmanStory.com.
