[Siren Classic: Erotic Romantic Suspense, public exhibition, spanking, HEA] Rachael Wells is a hard-working, ambitious 29 year old Londoner who relocated to Bath after the death of her father four years ago. She now finds herself alone after she walked in on her boyfriend, James, having sex with their neighbour. Although upset about the split, Rachael is not devastated as James had constantly belittled and controlled her throughout their relationship. Rachael quickly begins a new relationship with Ethan Stewart, a wealthy property developer, and she soon realises that Ethan is her "forever after." James finds the break difficult to come to terms with and becomes obsessed with winning his "Angel" back, threatening her and her close friends and soon resorting to violence to prove his love. The police begin to give up any hope of finding James and the Detective leading the investigation gives Ethan the idea for the perfect murder. Will Ethan and Rachael take The Right Turn and end James's rampage?  A Siren Erotic Romance
