Come foglie al vento (Italian Edition) Stefano Pavesio

Cinque ragazzini, residenti in anonimi e sonnolenti paesini delle colline astigiane, vedranno le loro vite sfiorate da eventi sempre più funesti, fino a diventarne parte loro stessi, scoprendo, forse senza nemmeno accorgersene, che il male non può che generare altro male e che tutto quel che accade non sempre è dettato da una personale volontà, ma accade semplicemente perché deve accadere, perché, al di là delle scelte soggettive, ci sono delle forze che guidano gli avvenimenti secondo uno schema prestabilito di ampio respiro, che porterà le loro esistenze negli anni 80-90 a intrecciarsi con vicissitudini legate agli anni della seconda guerra mondiale e alle vite di persone solo all'apparenza completamente slegate dalle loro. Ogni azione, per quanto piccola o insignificante possa apparire, ne scatena altre, talora quasi impercettibili talora dirompenti.

Esiste un filo conduttore che regola il trascorrere di ogni vita, un filo che si srotola da una matassa che non conosce limiti spaziali e temporali, un filo sottile, quasi invisibile, ma incredibilmente resistente, indistruttibile, un filo che nel suo svolgersi avvolgerà intorno a sé differenti esistenze trascinandole inesorabilmente verso un unico punto di confluenza, pur lasciando loro l'illusione di poter disporre pienamente delle proprie decisioni, un filo che avvolgerà allo stesso modo gioia e dolore, vita e morte, violenza e amore, legandoli insieme indissolubilmente.

Un filo che, al di là dei mondi concreti e reali noti a tutti, lambirà sfere meno considerabili dalle menti più razionali, come quelle che sembrano donare una volontà malvagia a un borgo abbandonato e al bosco che lo circonda o come quelle che chiamano in gioco la presenza delle maschere o che sembrano suggerire un gatto albino come un'occulta presenza latrice di sventura.

Non tutto quel che accade è comprensibile.

Non tutto quel che accade è accettabile.

Ma nulla, nulla accade per caso.
