Hidden Manna: Matthew Joshua Hinneh

A book based on sound research, the Concordant Literal New Testament (which uses for source, the most ancient Greek scriptures) - that would be before the church made numerous changes. We have, additionally, the holy spirit. I assume you (the reader) have felt it a mistake not to capitalize "holy spirit," so let me clarify. The oldest Greek scriptures tell us that in the beginning was the Word - the Word was toward God - and God was the Word. Consequently, Jesus is the Word made flesh, He is toward God, and God is Jesus (because He has the Spirit of God, only!) Jesus had the Spirit without measure, because He was the Word, without measure (not the holy spirit). We have the holy spirit when the Word of God is wedded to your soul, so we have the Spirit, limited by our own desires (contrary to God). How much Spirit we have is directly related to how much we know (and live) the Word. It isn't capitalized because we are part of it - and we are, shall we say, less than perfect. This book helps individuals to understand just what "sin" is! I know many have wondered how a sin, that seems minor, and doesn't hurt anyone, can be equivalent to murder? Because sin is "putting ourselves above God." We do what we want, we feel we know better. We are ruled by our flesh. All these other definitions of sin would not occur if we didn't rebel against God. Therefore, God has given us His teachings to help us adapt different punishments for differing offenses, enabling mankind to govern themselves properly. We all sin a great deal more than we realize. When the Messiah taught that if you look at someone with lust, you are guilty in your heart, of sin already. It isn't a case of "I lust, but I won't." You have already put yourself above God! If you knew all God's teachings, and lived them, you wouldn't let, even the thought of sin, be entering your thinking. How wonderful it is that the Messiah allows his living crucifixion to occur, for each of us, every day, and moment of our lives. The term "Living Scriptures," means to let the Word of God live through you, as your life. They are also living, as both the OT and NT are "Now" scriptures. Everything in them relates to who we really are. They are pictures of our souls if we use them as a mirror. The Torah has always been, is now, and forever. The remainder of the Bible is history, prophesy, and fulfillment in the New Testament. Together, the Old and New Testaments are one book, about "The Covenant of Promise (OT)," and "The Covenant of Fulfillment (NT)."
