Padre nostro (Etcetera) (Italian Edition) Simone Weil

Mi sono imposta, come unica pratica, di recitare il Pater una volta ogni mattina [...]. Talora già le prime parole strappano il mio pensiero dal mio corpo per trasportarlo in un luogo fuori dallo spazio, dove non c'è prospettiva, né punto di vista. Lo spazio si apre». Così Simone Weil racconta a padre Perrin la sua esperienza della preghiera, una pratica essenziale ma anche problematica per la filosofa che aveva scelto di vivere la fede rimanendo sulla soglia della Chiesa. Scritto durante il soggiorno a Marsiglia, il breve testo che i curatori presentano in questo volume è un commento alla più importante delle preghiere cristiane e rappresenta un distillato purissimo della scrittura religiosa di Simone Weil. In parole semplici e forti, emerge un'idea di preghiera che è al tempo stesso un affidarsi a Dio e una messa alla prova, senza facili consolazioni, della propria anima.
