The book Library Media Connection cited as something "all librarians need to have on their shelves" is now thoroughly revised for today's 21st-century library environment. Covering both technology and library practices, the title has been a go-to text for librarians and library school students since 2002.

- Thoroughly revises and updates a popular text for community college-level LIS or LTA programs that can also be used in MLIS graduate-level curricula and for four-year bachelor's degree programs in library studies and information studies
- Provides a succinct introduction to the library industry and a practical overview of the field from seasoned practitioners
- Brings together learnings from academic, public, special, and school libraries as well as archives and historical agencies, presenting material with both depth and breadth
- Is applicable as an introduction for library funding agencies and public library trustees or boards
