Operação Brasil: o ataque alemão que mudou o curso da Segunda Guerra Mundial (Portuguese Edition) Durval Lourenço Pereira

Agosto de 1942: o Brasil declara guerra ao Eixo. O estopim: o ataque a vários navios mercantes e de passageiros brasileiros no litoral do Nordeste por uma ofensiva naval nazista, provocando a morte de centenas de inocentes. Por que os nazistas afundaram navios desarmados de um país até então não envolvido na guerra? Qual era o objetivo do governo comandado por Hitler? "Operação Brasil" revela a origem dos eventos que culminaram com esse ataque e levaram nosso país a entrar na Segunda Guerra Mundial. A obra traz aspectos até agora inexplorados da ação militar que não só mudou os destinos do país, mas também alterou os rumos do conflito a favor dos Aliados. Além de uma narrativa fascinante, que mantém o leitor preso até o final, o livro apresenta documentos importantes, relatos de sobreviventes e testemunhos de civis, militares, funcionários do setor diplomático e do alto escalão do Estado (brasileiros, alemães e norte-americanos). Leitura necessária.
