Complete Poetry of Michelangelo Michelangelo, Michelangelo Buonarroti

Although Michelangelo's brilliance has been applauded from the earliest years of his long and productive career, he has been better known for his sculpture, painting, drawing and architecture than for his poetry. Yet there is a close relationship between his visual art and his poetry that, while long recognized by scholars and enthusiasts, has not been generally appreciated. Sidney Alexander's translation of the total body of Michelangelo's poetry, presented here, aims to deepen our understanding of this singular Renaissance giant, his attitudes and his work.
