Reproductive Rights and Wrongs: The Global Politics of Population Control Betsy Hartmann

"This is a book of conscience. Shocking, eloquent, carefully researched, it should be read—and acted upon."—Gena Corea

Reproductive Rights and Wrongs also tells the story of how international women's health activists fought to reform population control and promoted a new agenda of sexual and reproductive health and rights for all people. While their efforts bore fruit, many obstacles remain. Today, despite declining birth rates worldwide, overpopulation alarm is on the rise, and now it is tied to the threats of climate change and terrorism.

Betsy Hartmann is the author of numerous acclaimed books.
