Join medium and ghost writer Craig McManus as he returns to his favorite haunted resort by the sea, Cape May, New Jersey. This special 200-page, 11x8 limited edition book chronicles 400 years of hauntings in Cape May featuring the fabulous black and white photography of Maciek Nabrdalik. Printed in full spreads on coated matte art paper, the pictures... and the dead, truly come alive as you turn the pages. Not to disappoint his fans, Craig has added plenty of his ghostly commentary to the book. As Craig says, "A picture can speak a thousand words, but the pictures had to compete with me in this book, and I can talk!" Join Craig as he traces the hauntings in Cape May back to the Native American Indians who first inhabited the peninsula, and then chronicles the next 400 years of paranormal activity in this beloved seaside city in southern New Jersey. Remember to leave the light lit while you read Craig McManus' new book... 400 years of ghosts are a lot of ghosts to try to keep in one book... you may have a few page jumpers following you home!
