El altar vacío: Un libro ilustrado para debatir sobre la falta de curas (Spanish Edition) Fritz Lobinger

Ideas complejas se pueden hacer más sencillas y comprensibles a través de ilustraciones; y éstas pueden ayudar a la reflexión compartida. El objetivo de este libro es promover el debate en torno a la escasez de sacerdotes actuales: ¿La solución sería tener dos tipos diferentes de presbíteros? ¿Cómo hacerlo sin generar confusión? ¿Qué hacer para que colaboren entre todos en lugar de competir?

¿Serían precisos cambios en la formación de los curas actuales? ¿Qué papel desempeñarían las comunidades?

Este libro sugiere preguntas a través de las ilustraciones para ayudar a tomar conciencia de tantos aspectos sobre los que nunca se pensó. Las respuestas que propone el obispo Fritz Lobinger están contenidas en su libro Equipos de ministros ordenados donde propone la figura de los "ministros ordenados", personas con familia y una profesión secular pero que trabajarán, en equipo, a tiempo parcial para la comunidad en la que están insertos.

Las grandes preguntas sobre el ministerio presbiteral en la Iglesia de hoy no pueden ser respondidas por una sola persona. Juntos, debemos tratar de encontrar las respuestas.
