Embrace change and lose your sanity

When Allison Rushby's family, including two small children, decide to make their way halfway across the world to live in Cambridge for a year, many a mother tells her she is 'awfully brave' (read: crazy). Leaving behind a tried and tested, scheduled world of swimming lessons, lunchbox packing and her school gate tribe, she joins the many women before her who have penned a travel memoir.

And quickly finds out why they are all single and childless.

Over her year abroad, she struggles to embrace change and make the most of a new and different life, learning all she has to lose is thousands of dollars ... and her sanity.
